The DAY THAT IT WAS RAINING

The day that it was raining she hurried through the town, and all the little raindrops flashed like jewels coming down. They called to one another. Delighted as they were, and though there was not any sun a rainbow came with her.

The raindrops tapped the windows for folk to look without. They roused the lazy flowerets that slumbered roundabout. The raindrops all were laughing. Instead of being tears—such a gay rain has not been known in half a hundred years.

The day that it was raining she came along the street, and all the little raindrops ran to dance about her feet. And so, where'er she wanders, down street or shady lane, the folk that look upon her see the sunshine in the rain.

Enduring Sentiment.

"This," commented the Prodigal Son, as he sat at the head of the table and gazed around at the assembled family, who were rejoicing over his return: "this is about the toughest veil I ever tried to eat."

"Well, we thought you'd like a little touch of sentiment," said his Happy Father.

"That is the calf you used to play with before you ran away twenty years ago."

Mixed-Up History.

"Who is that martyr over there by the palace gates, who burns so much brighter and longer than the rest?" asked Nero, during one of his law lectures.

"That? Oh, that is an old baron we captured yesterday," replied the chairman of the entertainment committee. Whereupon Nero resumed his practice on the cadenza movement for the A string.

PERFIDIOUS MAN.

Mrs. Linquist—I want to get a divorce. My husband talks in his sleep.

Lawyer Soxkem—But, my dear madam, that is no ground for divorce. There is no cruelty in—

Mrs. Linquist—But he talks in Latin; and I don't understand that language at all.

His System.

"But," we said to the Great Poet, "do you understand your own poems?"

"Ah!" he replied, with the light of inspiration in his eyes, "I leave all such matters to the critics."

Then the Great Poet wrote two yards of an epic for the Sunday Yellow, and excused himself, as he had an engagement with the photographer.

Roused Her Suspensions.

"He says I am a poem," mused the belle of Chicago, tenderly.

Then, as a wave of dark suspicion flashed athwart her mind, she muttered, "I wonder if he means an Alfred Austin poem?"

and she sat for hours, gazing at her feet, shaking her head dolefully.

Changed Her Views.

"I thought your wife was opposed to the use of birds as trimming on bonnets," said the party who was always thinking of something.

"So she was," answered the party who was always being thought of, "so she was—until her pet parrot nipped her on the nose."

Why are you asked to buy a flower "just as good" as Clover Leaf? Because Clover Leaf is the standard of excellence. Better stick to it.

Catarrh Torture Cured

Trial Package Mailed Free to Convince You.

Head Feels Like Some Great Pressure Was Bearing You Down. Pain in Forehead, Nose and Throat. Itaw, Severe Headaches, Hacking, Spitting and Bad Breath.

These are only a few of the many symptoms that warn you of the deadly work catarrh is gradually accomplishing. Your whole system is being poisoned by the deadly catarrh germ which sooner or later will cause the complete decay of both tissue and bone.

It causes loss of thinking power, ulcers, irritation of the glands of the throat, causes earache and finally deafness. The continued dropping of these germs down through the throat usually results in indigestion, dyspepsia, catarrh of the stomach, bowels and other vital organs, causing consumption and final death.

C. E. GAUSS, 1239 Main Street, Marshall, Mich., has just discovered a remedy that quickly and permanently cures all forms of catarrh. It goes directly to the seat of the trouble and corrects the cause.

In order to convince any person suffering from this dreadful disease, one large sized package will be sent absolutely free, postage paid, in a plain wrapper. Speed Records by Autos.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 23.—Speed records may go by the board during the running of the Vanderbilt cup and the grand prize automobile races here Thanksgiving day and the day before. The preliminary practices have shown wonderful speed. Victor Hemery holds the fastest lap record, having made the seventeen-mile circuit in 12:01.06, or an average of 78.4 miles an hour. Spencer Wilhart did the course at 72.2 miles an hour, in an effort to establish a new world's record for automobile road races, the race promoters have arranged to keep a special time record for the first 202 miles of the Vanderbilt. The distance is the same as the Santa Monica course, in which a new world's record of 74.6 miles an hour was established.

MILK DIET IN TUBERCULOSIS.

The exclusive milk diet is more appropriate in tuberculosis than in any other condition. In that disease there is a rapid waste of albumen and fat, and both of these are well supplied by milk. If the patient will exercise (when there is no fever) as freely as possible, but without exhaustion, in the purest air at the lowest temperature and drink the milk very slowly it will give good results in most cases. Hippocrates, the father of medicine, prescribed for tuberculosis: "Go to the hills and drink goat's milk." Less than a dozen cases of tuberculosis have been recorded in goats.

SOME HOMELY DISHES.

The common things and the common people are those we have the most of, and so we need to be reminded that it is just as necessary that the common foods, because so important, making the bulk of our living, should be well prepared.

Rice, which is such a cheap food, and forms the chief article of food of a large portion of the population of the world, may be cooked and served in hundreds of ways.

Round Steak With Rice.—Cut one and a half pounds of steak into two or three-inch squares; put into a saucepan to steam without water. Slice an onion and fry in a little suet, add to the steak and season with salt and pepper. Cut up a tomato and add with water to the meat, enough to cover the meat. Let simmer for two hours, then add a half cup of rice and more water if needed, and cook until the rice is tender.

Mutton With Rice.—Wipe with a damp cloth a pound and a half of meat cut from the shoulder, into small pieces, adding a little fat. Cut up a third of a carrot and one onion in small pieces. Put over the fire with water to cover and cook at the simmering point for two hours. Add salt, pepper and finely-minced parsley. Mix two tablespoonsful of flour with two of cold water and add to the stew. Cook five minutes. Place the stew on a platter and arrange around it by spoonfuls, salted, boiled rice.

Servian Rice With Meat.—Cut up a pound of beef from the shoulder, cut in inch squares. Fry a large onion in a little suet, then put in the meat, season with salt and paprika and cook slowly over a slow fire. Add a half pound of rice and boiling water. Cook until the rice is tender. Serve hot.

Victims of Superstition.

Eighteen girls of Vassar, Transylvania, have been drowned in the River Aluta. There is a local tradition that any young woman who bathes in the river at midnight will be married before the year has expired.

Twenty young women from the town, desirous of obtaining husbands, went at the appointed time to bathe. The current was very strong, and swept the girls away, only two being saved.

Fielder Jones to Become Manager.

New York, Nov. 23.—In baseball circles today credence was given the report that Fielder Jones, formerly of the Chicago Americans, will become manager of the New York Yankees. Jones, for several years, has refused to re-enter baseball, but, of late, he has shown a desire to come back and it is said President Barrell is prepared to make him a handsome offer. If Jones does come to New York, he must first secure the consent of President Comiskey of Chicago.

Daily Christmas Hint

Decorations For the Christmas Table Should Be Appropriate

DECORATED DESERT CUP.

Now that the calendar suggests the coming holiday season and its luncheons and dinners the question of favors and decorations for Christmas arises in the minds of practical women.

For the high stemmed glasses in which fruit cups or any desserts are served the little sprig of pine, with a cone and perhaps a festoon of red and green ribbons, will do much to decorate a table and, if artificial, can be worn in the lapel of a coat for many days.

The mistletoe or the holly on the Christmas place card need not be real. It can be bought at a millinery store in a large bunch. After cutting two horizontal slits in a card insert the sprig that suggests the Christmas season and write the name of the guest on the card.
